The London Gazette.

Published by Authority.

From Saturday October 10. to Tuesday October 13. 1713.

Windsor, October 12.

THE following Addreſs from the Governor and Council of Jamaica, was preſented to Her Majeſty by the Right Hon. the Lord Viſcount Bolingbroke, One of Her Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

To the QUEEN's moſt Excellent Majeſty.

The humble Addreſs of the Governor and Council of Jamaica.

Moſt gracious Sovereign,

WE Your Majeſty's moſt Dutiful and Loyal Subjects the Governor and Council of Your Majeſty's Iſland of Jamaica, humbly crave leave, with Hearts full of Joy, to Congratulate Your Majeſty upon the happy Concluſion of ſo Glorious and Honourable a Peace, which not only extends Your Dominions, but muſt make them all flouriſh.

It is with the moſt dutiful and ſubmiſſive Admiration we behold Your Majeſty's Conſummate Wiſdom, ſeconded by a moſt Able and Faithful Miniſtry, ſuperior to the greateſt Difficulties and Obſtructions, accompliſhing that great End, the preſerving the Balance of Power in Europe, and obtaining the moſt ſolid Advantage and Security to Your People and their Poſterity, which has ever been the Motive of all Your Tranſcendent Actions.

Nor can we conceive any but the moſt obſtinate and irreconciliable Enemies to our Church and Conſtitution, capable ſtill of fomenting groundleſs Fears and Jealouſies, after what Your Majeſty has ſo effectually done for ſecuring the Proteſtant Succeſſion in the Illuſtrious Houſe of Hanover.

But as Words are faint Expreſſions of the Happineſs we enjoy under Your Auſpicious Reign, our Actions, to the utmoſt of our Ability, ſhall always demonſtrate our Loyalty.

That Your Majeſty may live long poſſeſſed of the Hearts of Dutiful and Grateful Subjects to the Greateſt and Beſt of QUEENS, Arbiter of Europe, to reap the bleſſed Fruits of Your Labours, are the united Acclamations of all Your People.

Which Addreſs Her Majeſty received very graciouſly.

On Board Her Majeſty's Ship the Blenheim in Villa Franca Harbour, October 2. N. S. On the 30th paſt, their Sicilian Majeſties arrived at Nice, and as they have reſolved to come on Board this Ship as ſoon as the Troops are imbarked, we expect to ſet Sail within a few Hours. Their Houſhold conſiſts of Four hundred Perſons, who are all to be received on Board of our Squadron, conſiſting at preſent of Five Men of War. The Colcheſter and the Briſtol were detached ſome Days ago towards Sicily, that in caſe any Attempt ſhould be made to hinder his Majeſty from taking Poſſeſſion of the Kingdom, they might be in a readineſs to prevent it. The Ormond is ſent to Great Britain, and as ſoon as this Service is performed, the reſt of the Squadron is likewiſe to return home.

Berlin, October 10. N. S. On the 7th Inſtant the Royal Regiment of Foot, and Prince Henry's Regiment entered into Stetin, where they are to remain in Garriſon during the Sequeſtration of that Place, together with two Battalions in the Service of the Duke-Adminiſtrator of Holſtein. Major General Bork, who commands the Royal Regiment, is appointed by the King to be one of the Governors of the Place, and the Miniſter of Holſtein is to Name another. It is ſaid the Muſcovites are to receive Four hundred thouſand Dollars for the Expence of the Siege, and that his Pruſſian Majeſty is to advance the Money. Yeſterday Baron Goertz returned hither from Holſtein.

Hamburgh, October 13. N. S. The King of Denmark hath ſent Orders to his Miniſters at Berlin and Hanover, to complain of the Conduct of Baron Goertz, who retired from Gottorp without giving notice of his Departure. When he went away, he left Directions with his Secretary to ſollicit the Daniſh Miniſters for an Anſwer to the laſt Memorial he had preſented to them, and having received it, he in like manner withdrew from that Place. Upon theſe Proceedings the Victuals and Forage that were got ready to be carried into Tonningen, were countermanded, and Sold. On the 4th Inſtant the King of Pruſſia was met by Prince Menzikoff at Swedt, where it was agreed that two Pruſſian Battalions ſhould enter into Stetin, that the Fortreſſes of Wiſmar and Stralſund ſhould likewiſe be put into Sequeſtration, and garriſon'd by his Majeſty's Troops. It is ſaid the King of Pruſſia has engaged that the Swedes ſhall tranſport no more Forces into Pomerania, and that they ſhall not Attack any of the Provinces which the Allies poſſeſs in the Empire. The remainder of the Swediſh Garriſons are to return to Sweden, and the Muſcovite Troops are to march through Poland into the Czar's Dominions. Major-General Bork is to be Governor of Stetin. The Pruſſian Troops that are to enter into that Place, Wiſmar and Stralſund, are to be paid out of the Revenue of Pomerania; and if that does not yield enough to maintain them, the Duke of Holſtein is to make good the Deficiency. A Miniſter of the Duke of Mecklenbourg, and a Colonel of the Garriſon of Wiſmar, are arrived at Harbourg, in order to conſult with Count Welling, as is ſuppoſed, upon the Capitulation of Wiſmar.

Hague,